

CYPRUS THIRD AGE PHOTOGRAPHY GROUP

CHRISTMAS COMPETITION AND LUNCH

Tuesday 13th December 2016 saw the C3A Photography group hold its annual Christmas Photography Competition followed by their Christmas lunch.

The event took place at the Zante Restaurant and was attended by 30 members of the group. Vassos Stylianou – ABIPP – AMPA, of 6 x 6 Centre for Photography based in Limassol kindly agreed to judge the competition. The theme for competition was, 'Reflections'. There were five winners whose photographs were judged to be, by Vassos, of the highest standard and an improvement on those entries, entered at last year's competition.

Prizes were donated by, Camera City (a professional tripod), 6 x 6 Centre for photography who donated two vouchers for 2 large prints mounted on foam board, a meal for 2 with wine donated by the Zante Restaurant and two etchings donated by Connie Trapezaris. After the competition, all sat down for a delicious Christmas Lunch. All who attended said how excellent their meal was and thanks goes to Maria, the chef-ess, for producing such wonderful cuisine. Fred Bowes, the photography group leader, congratulated the winners and said that he planned for 2017 to be an even better year for the group. He also reminded the group that on 12th May 2017, for one week, the group would be holding its second exhibition at 6 x 6 Centre for photography in Limassol. Congratulations went to Andrew Dexter who came first in the competition.

To find out more about C3A Limassol activities and how to join please visit:
<http://c3a=cyprus.org/limassol/>

The Winners of the C3A Limassol Branch Photography Group 2016 Christmas Photographic competition
Left to Right: Peter Sheldrake, Mark Allen, Vassos Stylianou (The Judge holding Tibor Somogyi's entry), Andrew Dexter (Overall winner), Claudine Snell and Andrew Pepper